My interest in the history of the Second World War was one of the reasons why I started working for Faces To Graves.

Beside this I think it is important that we continue remembering these (mostly young) Canadian soldiers.

Reading the stories of those soldiers makes me realize over and over again how impressive it is that they gave their most precious possession - their lives - for our freedom.

By placing their life stories in a digital monument, they will keep their place in history now and in the future and I am happy to contribute to that.

Let's not forget!
