

PRIVACY STATEMENT STICHTING FACES TO CANADIAN WAR GRAVES GROESBEEK

The Faces to Canadian War Graves Groesbeek Foundation (hereinafter referred to as FTG) handles personal data with care and confidentiality thereby complying with applicable laws and regulations and with the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the GDPR, and the General Data Protection Regulation Implementation Act.

FTG's specific aim is to carry out (military) historical and necrological research regarding fallen soldiers for the benefit of next of kin, institutions and interested parties. For our objective we refer you to our statutes (available on our website).

The GDPR is not applicable to deceased persons (Article 27), as, according to the GDPR, they are no longer natural persons. In case the data pertains to another person, these may still be personal data, but they do not then relate to the deceased, but to the other, living person. This does not change the fact that FTG also handles data of fallen soldiers with care.

FTG is the data controller, which means that FTG is responsible for compliance with laws and regulations. For questions and comments, FTG can be reached as follows: Faces to Canadian War Graves Groesbeek Foundation, p/a Sprokkelveld 86 B, 6596 BM Milsbeek, the Netherlands, email: info@facestograves.nl / www.facestograves.nl

Our privacy policy is applicable when visiting our website, requesting information, having meetings, carrying out correspondence and making telephone calls as well as to agreements with FTG and our volunteers.

Use of personal data for various purposes

FTG processes the personal data collected for various purposes:

- To contact you;
- To send you information;
- To determine strategy and policy;
- To be able to comply with obligations under laws and regulations;
- To perform services;
- To collect information on the use of our website and the use of its features;
- To enter into and fulfill agreements;

We do not use your personal data for other purposes, unless consent has been given to do so or in case FTG is allowed or obliged to do so under laws and regulations. Given consent can be withdrawn at any time

Retention

FTG will not retain personal data for longer than is necessary to achieve the objectives stated above and, in any case, for as long as specific regulations require.

Data security

FTG employs security procedures to protect the personal data it processes. Only authorised persons have access to the processed personal data.

Links

Our privacy policy does not apply to third-party websites that are connected to FTG through links. We would advise you to study the privacy policies of these other organisations before using their websites.

Data stored and rights of the people involved

Every person involved has the following rights:

- The right to information on data processing;
- The right to access his/her data;
- The right to have the data corrected if these are inaccurate;
- The right to have data removed and the right 'to be forgotten';
- The right to restriction of data processing;
- The right to objection to data processing;
- The right to have his/her data transferred (data portability);
- The right to not being subjected to automated decision-making.

FTG will honour a request from the person involved unless the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive. Furthermore, the above is only applicable if the person involved can sufficiently identify himself/herself.

In principle, FTG will inform the party involved of the execution of the request within one month after receiving the request.

Right to file a complain

If the person concerned disagrees with a certain processing of personal data, he/she can file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority. See
